PROJECTS

Pholickr | (React / Redux, Python, HTML, CSS, Sqlalchemy)

live | github

- Integrated a Search Bar feature with React.js and Redux, enabling users to search photos by titles. The code structure ensures maintainability and scalability, supporting dynamic photo lists with real-time search functionality.
- Developed interactive features such as comments, photo editing, and deletion, along with user follow capabilities. Features were made through the React using hooks and Redux for state management.
- Deployed via Render, and incessantly tested the app's functionalities for optimal performance.

Pinteresting | (React / Redux, Python, HTML, CSS, Sqlalchemy)

live | github

- Embraced Agile Scrum methodologies to streamline communication and cooperation among team members, ensuring efficient progress and successful project outcomes.
- Utilized Flask for the backend to deliver robust API functionality, complemented by Flask Forms for the authenticated login. This ensured security and user-friendliness for both developers and end-users.
- Integrated GitHub's features into our workflow, including dedicated branches, code reviews, and approval processes. This approach facilitated a structured development workflow, ensuring code integrity, reducing conflicts, and enabling a smooth merging process, ultimately leading to a well-coordinated project completion.

Sound Puff | (Express / Javascript, React / Redux,, HTML, CSS, AWS, Sequelize)

live | github

- Integrated AWS for scalable storage enables dynamic resource scaling based on demand, optimizing performance and cost-effectiveness in the music streaming application.
- The homepage features a scrolling marquee using React and React-slick that visually captivates and creates an engaging entry point for users.

EXPERIENCE

Warehouse Manager and Operations Administrator

June 2015 - Present

DHL, a global logistics organization that acquired Hillebrand in 2022. Prior to the acquisition, Hillebrand had acquired Braid in 2021, resulting in the integration of industry-leading logistics companies with a bulk liquids division.

- Operations - Oversaw a portfolio of 20+ clients, ensuring seamless operations process by coordinating with steamship lines, trucking companies, flexitank installers, and scheduling with loading plants. Demonstrated ocean logistics expertise in preparing and submitting critical shipment documents, including customs clearance documents, to ensure compliance with relevant regulations.
- Inventory Management - Effectively managed the procurement and distribution of more than 10,000 flexitanks and their components across the United States and Canada. Proactively utilized cost optimization strategies to identify and engage with vendors offering the lowest possible transit costs, resulting in 10-20% cost savings. I ensured optimal inventory levels, minimized stockouts, and reduced excess inventory through strong vendor management, negotiations, and exceptional communication skills, resulting in successful outcomes.
- Incident Management - Responsible for mitigating incidents at ports, trucking depots, and plant sites. Prepare and submit detailed incident reports to customers, including root cause analysis. Successfully implemented cost-saving measures by managing incidents in-house, resulting in substantial cost reductions compared to outsourcing to external companies.

Procurement Specialist

Axistrade

June 2014 - June 2015

- Efficiently sourced all requested items from leading S&P 500 oil and gas companies, while prioritizing cost optimization to maximize profit margins. Proactively sought out cost-effective solutions to minimize expenses while maintaining high levels of quality and timely delivery.
